Friendly Polynesian Islands of the South Productions would like to invite you and your family to an evening of captivating entertainment. Enjoy the graceful beauty of Polynesian music, our captivating dancers and of course, an island feast. Our menu will include roast pig, chop suey, yams, barbecue chicken, kalua, potato salad, tropical fruit juice (Otai) and tropical fruit appetizers. We maintain the authenticity of the Polynesian dances and culture of the South Pacific Islands of Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa, Tahiti, New Zealand and Fiji.

The Winter Luau will be held on Feb. 4, 2012 from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Monsignor McCall Hall, St. Patrick Catholic Church, 1507 Trotter Road, Largo.

Tickets are available after most Masses as well as both the church and school offices, or you can send through with your child by filling out the form below. Please mark attn: Winter Luau, St. Patrick School PTO Fundraiser.
